Epistle	Heb. 11: 17-31
Gospel	Mark 4: 35-41
Evening	Pro. 3: 5-18 / Rom. 12: 1-8

Collect: Almighty God, the author and perfecter of our faith, thank you for intimidation in our life journey. You have shown us that courage is not expressed by being aggressive but by being assertive. We are threatened by the fear of shame and embarrassment due to our foolish past, fear of emotional pain due to very disturbing experiences, fear of physical threat on our lives, fear of rejection, criticism or failure. Eventually these fears make us abandon the call of God upon our lives. We pray that we be strengthened when we find our faith difficult or impossible, troubled by questions to which we can find no answer, unable to take the leap of faith and lives overwhelmed by sudden catastrophe, our hopes for the future crashed and faith in your purpose shaken. Speak and help us to hear your voice; lead us to see your hands; teach us to know your will and send us out to walk by faith. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

Significance of the Liturgical colours:

Note :

This note is added to help those congregations who use Liturgical colours.

White is the colour for the festal periods from Christmas Eve to the festival of Epiphany, from Easter day to the eve of Pentecost, and for Trinity Sunday. It is also used for marriages, thanksgiving services, harvest festivals, the feast of dedication of a Church and for feasts commemorating saints. White is suitable for baptism, confirmation and ordination, though red may be preferred.

Green is the colour for ordinary Sundays. It is used between Epiphany and Ash Wednesday, and between Trinity Sunday and Advent Sunday.

Purple is the colour for Advent season and Lenten season and is therefore used from the first Sunday in Advent to the fourth Sunday in Advent; from Ash Wednesday until Holy Saturday. However, white may be preferred at holy communion service on Maundy Thursday. Purple is recommended for funerals and for the commemoration of the faithful departed, although either black or white may also be used. White is preferred at the funeral of a child.

Red is used on the feast of Pentecost, and during the week between Pentecost, and during the week between Pentecost and Trinity Sunday. It is used on All Saints' day and for the feasts of those saints venerated as martyrs. It is appropriate for any service which focuses on the gift of the Holy Spirit, and is therefore suitable for baptism, confirmation and ordination.

Orange / Saffron CSI Episcopacy has instituted Orange/Saffron hand bands and stolls for its Bishops. Orange is colour of India & it is on the top of the Indian Flag symbolizing Indian spirituality of Prayer, Meditation, Sacrifice, Selflessness and Commitment. The CSI Episcopal vestments do not change the colours throughout the year, for Episcopacy stands for continuity of Pastoral Leadership, Solemnity & Dignity of Liturgical continuance and perpetual theological reflection and commitment to God and to His Word and to His Church.
